Vienna, July 18.

THe laſt news we had from Hungary, was, that the Duke of Lorrain had actually beſieged Buda, in which are 5 or 6000 Janiſaries; that he had made himſelf Maſter of the Gerhards Hill; and that Count Starenberg, who commanded the Attack, was, when theſe Letters came away, lodged in the Ditch of the Upper Town, which he hoped to gain in few days, the beſieged having no proſpect of relief. The Letters from Poland tell us, that the King of Poland would be at the head of his Army about the 20th of this Month.

Vienna, July 20. We have Letters from the Imperial Camp before Buda of the 15th Inſtant, which give the following account. The Turks are retired towards the Bridge of Eſſecke, having put 4000 Janiſaries into Buda. We have made our ſelves Maſters of the Old Town, and do now attack the Upper Town, as it is called; we have poſted our ſelves under their Cannon, and have attached the Miners in three ſeveral places; we batter the Town with 40 Pieces of Cannon and 20 Mortars, and the beſieged are not wanting to anſwer us in the ſame kind. The Palatin of Hungary hath joyned the Army with 6000 men, having left 4000 to ſecure the Paſſages about Newheuſel: And General Leſlie is ſaid to be on his march this way, but that he may not be diſturbed by the Turks in Vivorita, he hath attacked that place, in which are 500 Janiſaries; and there are ſome Letters from Croatia, which ſay he hath taken it. It hath been very confidently reported that the Imperialiſts have ſurprized the ſtrong Caſtle of Mongatz, belonging to the Princeſs Ragotzi, Count Teckeley's Wife, but we do not give any great credit to it.

Lintz, July 22. The Emperor's departure from hence for Vienna is fixed for the beginning of the next Month. The Elector of Bavaria is expected here; greateſt part of his Forces will march for Hungary, and it's ſaid he will command them in perſon. We have Letters from the Imperial Camp of the 16th Inſtant; and we hope in few days to hear they are Maſters of Buda; The Emperor has Letters from Count Wallaſtein, his Ambaſſador in Poland, giving him an account that the King was upon his departure from Jawarow to joyn his Army; and that he had provided his Equipage to accompany his Majeſty during the Campagne.

From the Imperial Camp before Buda, July 16.

The Imperial Army came the 14th Inſtant about 11 in the Morning to Alt-Offen or Old Buda, not having ſeen any Forces of the Enemy in a poſture to oppoſe them; Thoſe that lay encamped under the Cannon of Buda were in ſuch a conſternation upon our approach, that they made all the haſte they could to retire with their Cannon and Baggage; having put moſt of their Foot into the Lower Town upon the Danube; but yeſterday, ſeeing the Imperial Army advance, they abandoned that Poſt, and having ſet fire to ſome Houſes, retired with ſeveral Pieces of Cannon into the Upper Town; the Duke of Lorrain immediately detached ſome Troops who entred the Lower Town, and charged the Turks in their retreat, and having put out the fire, poſted themſelves under the Wall of the Upper Town: The City is compoſed of four ſeparate Parts, two on the Danube, and two on the Hill viz. the Upper Town and the Caſtle and the Forteresſ of St. Gerard; of the two firſt, we are already, as hath been ſaid, Maſters of the Lower Town, and this night we hope to gain the other. We began yeſterday to batter the place with our Cannon and Bombs, and we are preparing three Mines to attack the Upper Town. We hope to have finiſhed all our Batteries this night; The Beſieged fire upon us without intermiſſion but have hitherto done us little or no harm. The Palatin of Hungary hath joyned us with 6000 men, and when Count Leſlie is come to us, the Army will conſiſt of 50000 fighting men. We have taken a Fort from whence we very much incommode the beſieged, and hope to be Maſters of the Town and Caſtle before the end of this Month. There are a great many Baths in the Camp, which the Turks built about Buda.

Ratisbonne, July 27. Yeſterday all the three Colledges of the Dyet agreed upon a concluſion for the accepting the Truce of 20 years propoſed by France, though with ſeveral Conditions and Reſervations.

Cologne, July 28. On Wedneſday next will be held a general review of our Elector's Troops at Zons, at which his Electoral Highneſs will be preſent, after which the ſaid Troops will decamp, and march, as it's ſaid, towards the Meuſe. The French Troops commanded by Monſieur de Foyeuſe, continue in the mean time in the Country of Eyffelt.

Hamburg, July 28. The Daniſh Troops have quitted the Dutchy of Saxe-Lawenburg; thoſe that were quartered at Mollem marching from thence the 22. Inſtant; and we are told that that Country is to pay the King of Denmarke 25000 Crowns. From Berlin we are told that the Elector of Brandenburg is ſending a greator Succor to the King of Poland, than was at firſt ſpoken of, and that it will conſiſt of 5 or 6000 men.

Bruſſels, Auguſt 1. On Friday laſt paſſed through this place an Expreſs, who was going to the Hague with Letters from the Dutch Ambaſſador in France; He reported, as we are told, that the news at Paris was, That the King of Spain had accepted the Truce, but ſo as to refer the adjuſting the Conditions of it to the Emperor. The Mareſchal de Schomberg continues encamped at Chaſtelet near Charleroy; and Monſieur de Boufflers on the ſide of Nivelle. Eight thouſand men of Monſieur de Crequi's Army are come into the Dutchy of Limburg, and it's believed they will joyn with the Elector of Cologne's

Forces.
